

Keeping You Safe — Information for Students

Your right to feel safe

Version 1.0 · 03/07/2026

You have the right to feel safe

At Swale Tutoring Service we want you to feel safe, listened to and respected — always. Feeling safe is your right, not a favour.

If something is worrying you

You might feel worried, upset or unsafe about something — at home, online, with friends, or anywhere else. It is never your fault, and you are never on your own. Please tell your tutor. Whatever it is, they will listen and take you seriously.

What happens when you tell someone

Your tutor cares about you, so if you tell them something that means you might not be safe, they can't keep it a total secret — they have to tell the person whose job it is to help keep you safe. They will explain what happens next, and they will be kind about it.

People you can talk to

- Your tutor
- Shelley — the person in charge of keeping you safe (Designated Safeguarding Lead)
- Childline: call 0800 1111 (free, any time) or visit childline.org.uk — you don't have to give your name
- If you are in danger right now, call 999

Remember

Talking about a worry is a brave and sensible thing to do. Nothing is too big or too small to tell us.
